

Instrument Supervisor:

Salary Range is in Dhs. 16532/- – 20156/- (including allowances)

➤ Basic Function:

Supervises the installation, maintenance, troubleshooting, repair and testing of a wide range of electric, electronics, pneumatic and microprocessor based analytical instruments and process analyzers; lab analyzers, instrument equipment and associated control systems, protections with associated Programming Logic Control (PLC) with ESD Systems, fire & gas systems, telecommunication system, Burner Management System (BMS), “GE” Gas Turbine Control and Protection System, distribution control systems (DCS), turbine machinery, steam generators, thermal control system and pipelines instrument equipment in the plant. Includes monitoring of work execution and providing guidance to ensure conformity to statutory and Company regulations, deals personally with more complex maintenance, supervises shutdown and turnaround maintenance activities, executes modifications and commissioning of expansions for new plant activities. Prepares turnaround and modular shutdown plan and material requirement for instrumentation and control systems

+ Minimum Requirements:

- ✓ Completion of Technical Secondary Education followed by 3 years Higher Diploma in Instrumentation/Electronics Engineering.
- ✓ 8 years' experience in the installation, maintenance and repair of electronic, pneumatic and microprocessor-based instruments and control systems in an oil/gas or petrochemical industry.
- ✓ Fair knowledge of English